CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, WEST MIDDLESEX, PA

FROM OUR PASTOR

The angel told Joseph in a dream to take the child and his mother to the land of Israel.

I once saw a painting of the Holy Family that showed Joseph doing carpentry while Jesus held a tool and Mary watched at the door, doing nothing. Not like any family I know.

We know what real families are like. In a real family, Jesus would have been getting in his father's way or off somewhere else when Joseph wanted help. Mary would have been working keeping the house livable and the family fed.

If that picture of Joseph's workshop is of a holy family, we're all out of luck. All we can do is stare at it wistfully and think of how nice it would be if all families were perfect. If family holiness is some impossible situation of goodness, harmony, cleanliness and hard work, there is no reason for us to celebrate this day.

Perhaps the painting was wrong. Maybe Jesus was a pest around the house. Maybe Mary shouted herself hoarse calling him to meals. Maybe Joseph got so caught up in his work that Mary and Jesus stood at the workshop door, ignored. Maybe Mary sometimes burned the bread.

We just celebrated the birth of Jesus and our faith tells us that God wasn't play-acting at being human. Jesus really needed to be toilet trained, he really got bumps and bruises horsing around with his friends. Yes, he could be a pest! The family we call the Holy Family was not all that different from other families.

The word "holy" comes from the word healthy. Holiness is a sort of health, and health may be a path for us to understand holiness. When we're healthy we move through life with a certain confidence – not fearing life or the world or that everyday we're going to face a calamity. Holiness is also a kind of confidence, a confidence that God's love for us is stronger than sin or death.

Consider those people who make physical and mental health the exclusive object of their lives each and every day. They can be burdensome to us. They are neither happy nor truly healthy, because health is a by-product of a certain kind of life. One who walks, runs, climbs or dances for the joy of it is healthy.

Holiness, too, is a result, not an objective. When I'm filled with amazement at God's love, especially during these days of the Christmas season, and share that love with people in my life, we become holy. We feel our prayer is joyful; We pray with gusto. If we turn prayer into some form of spiritual calisthenics, we will be neither happy nor holy.

That takes us back to the Holy Family. It was holy not because it lived an exalted life unavailable to the rest of us. It was holy because it was a group of people not unlike ourselves who loved, who lived, who wept and laughed. Theirs was a home in which a boy could, as the Scriptures say, "grow in strength and size, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was with him."

Our homes can be the same, maybe more than we realize they are. They have their problems, no family is without them. Every mother feels swords pierce her heart from time to time. Home is where we learn to love...and to love God. That's where we practice sharing, openness and patience; and that is a reflection of God's love for us all.

May 2026 be a blessing for all your families!
